

CALL FOR PAPERS (SOPhiA 2014, Salzburg, deadline: May 31)

Salzburg Conference for Young Analytic Philosophy: SOPhiA 2014 September 4 - 6, 2014

Department of Philosophy (Humanities), University of Salzburg, Austria

Aim:

SOPhiA 2014 aims at an opportunity for students and doctoral candidates in Philosophy to get in touch with prospective or well established philosophers and take a first peek into the philosophical business. Contributions in every discipline of philosophy (epistemology, ethics, logic, metaphysics, philosophy of religion, philosophy of science etc.) are welcome. As customary in analytic philosophy, contributors should make use of understandable language as well as rational argumentation. Beside the conference presentations there also will be workshops on selected topics in analytic philosophy.

Keynote Speakers:

- Elke Brendel (University of Bonn)
- Winfried Loeffler (University of Innsbruck)
- Jeanne Peijnenburg (University of Groningen)
- Benjamin Schnieder (University of Hamburg)

Call for papers:

Students and doctoral candidates (pre-doc) in philosophy are hereby encouraged to submit an abstract (in German or English) not exceeding 2.000 characters which should be suitable for a presentation of approximately 20 minutes in length (plus 10 minutes discussion). Please submit your abstract with a biographical note and a short CV attached in a separate document at <http://www.sophia-conference.org/> until May 31, 2014. Attendees are asked to apply at the same site before the conference.

Submission deadline: May 31, 2014

Notification deadline: June 10, 2014
